

The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time

Production Timeline

2003

Mark Haddon's novel The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time is published

2004

Novel wins Whitbread Book of the Year Award in the UK plus more than 17 literary awards in UK, Japan, Holland and Italy

2008

Mark Haddon and Simon Stephens first meet at NT Studio and discuss idea of dramatising the novel

2011

Simon Stephens adapts the book for the stage and asks Marianne Elliott to consider directing it

2012

Play goes into NT Studio for workshopping and a production schedule is produced

2 August play opens at the National Theatre's Cottesloe Theatre

6 September NT Live broadcast goes out (filmed in the round in the Cottesloe Theatre)

2013

1 March play transfers to London's Apollo Theatre

15 October BBC Online resources go live giving insight to the rehearsal process

bbc.co.uk/programmes/b03dwq2r/clips

Production receives seven Olivier Awards, including Best New Play, Best Director, Best Lighting Design and Best Sound Design.

2014

24 June West End production transfers to the Gielgud Theatre and is seen by over 300,000 people so far during its run in the West End

5 October Broadway production opens at the Barrymore Theatre

18 December UK tour begins previews at The Lowry, Salford

2015

Production tours to Hull, York, Newcastle, Stoke-on-Trent, Wolverhampton, Plymouth, Aylesbury, Northampton, Nottingham, Cardiff, Bradford, Edinburgh, Canterbury, Birmingham, Leicester, Truro, Oxford, Liverpool, Bristol, Sunderland, Glasgow, Leeds, Aberdeen, Norwich, Sheffield, Dublin, Belfast, Bath and Milton Keynes

